

For Immediate Release:
April 14, 2015

For further information:
Amanda Valencia, 651.288.4063, or amandav@mfu.org

MEDIA ADVISORY: Minnesota Farmers Union looking forward to special community meetings for women’s leadership starting this Saturday.

ST. PAUL (April 14, 2015) – Minnesota Farmers Union (MFU) is hosting several community leadership meetings focusing on women’s leadership on several Saturdays through the spring of 2015.

Women from all across Minnesota will get together with other women leaders in their communities to build connections and network with other to help strengthen their leadership and drive in their communities.

Women have always been an integral part of the farm and these meetings will help to build on their strengths as well as help them meet other women who are as motivated as they are in their own communities.

The meetings will be held on Saturday afternoons all around the state. The first meeting will be at Lone Star Grill in St Peter, MN April 18, 2015 from 11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

The schedule of the other meetings is as follows:

April 25, 2015	1 p.m.— 3 p.m.	Hinterland Vineyards, Clara City, MN
May 2, 2015	11 a.m.— 1 p.m.	Four Daughters Vineyard, Spring Valley, MN
May 9, 2015	11 a.m.— 1 p.m.	Black and White Café, Little Falls, MN
May 16, 2015	11 am—1 pm	Big Wood Center, Fergus Falls, MN

The full schedule can be found on our website as well at www.mfu.org. If you would like to speak with anyone before, during or after the conference, contact MFU Public Affairs Director, Amanda Valencia at 651.288.4063

Minnesota Farmers Union, standing for agriculture and fighting for farmers (www.mfu.org).
